

Class Notes Wednesday, April 11, 2018

Present

Linda, Liz, Lou, Jing-Sun, Marie, Rainbow

A brief discussion of the Petro-Chemical Plant informational meeting lead to the introduction of an idiom "Drink the Kool-Aid".

All volunteers and students were invited to bring a poem as part of the recognition of

National Poetry Week,

The following poems were presented :

Jing-Sun To See A Word in a Grain of Sand by William Blake

Marie Alone by Edgar Allen Poe

Linda My Papa's Waltz

Rainbow You Say You Love Rain.....

Liz Dust If You Must

Lou Stopping by Woods On a Snowy Evening by Robert frost

The Road Not Taken by Robert Frost

Each poem was considered for theme, imagery, double meanings, word play, etc.

Class concluded with a brief discussion of climate change and possible contributing factors.

Elizabeth Murphy