

This was our final class for the season. We will begin again sometime in August or early September. That date has not yet been determined.

Following are Laureen's notes:

“Yuka, Yoko, and Hyunju were in attendance. We had Regis, MaryAnn, Silvia, Libby, and Barbara Frasier-Lowe as volunteers. We reviewed all of the Travel/Vacation idioms, and questions.

There were one or two questions from the previous housing module.

They did very well with the Travel section idioms, including pulling together one from the last class, with this class's i.e. - If you are "traveling lightly", then you don't pack "everything and the kitchen sink"... LOL.

Everyone said that they would definitely be looking forward to classes starting back up again in the Fall.
