Discussion Topic: Birthing Practices in Each Country

Joyce's notes:

Today we had Natalia, Hyunji, Yoko, Jin, Rainbow and Yuka. Most of them arrived late and at different times and so we did not put them into groups. It seems that only Yuka is still quite quiet; Natalia was speaking a lot.

We discussed birthing practices in each country. We also talked about what it was like to come to the USA. Cliff led them in the pronunciation sentences; all except for Yuka seemed to do it easily.

We talked politics among other things when, during the second half, we had food and informal talking. They asked if we could do politics again.

We talked about sometime they can bring in nutrition tips for the group, including what restaurants do the best job that represents their culture and perhaps some recipes. They all seem to be knowledgeable more than we are about what various foods do for your health.
