

Conversation Friends Thursday, November 16, 2017 10:00 a.m. – 12:15p.m.

Volunteers: Cliff* Libby Mary Joyce

Students: Hyunju, Jinok Sung, Young hye, Yoko, Rainbow, Jing Sun, Guosheng and Xi Lin.

During the first hour and ten minutes, we discussed gender differences and women's rights and opportunities in their countries. Many of the questions came from a document that Jon supplied.

The Chinese and Koreans discussed the questions with enthusiasm, Yoko participated, but later indicated to Joyce that she was uncomfortable with the subjects discussed.

After a long break, Joyce took Guosheng and Rainbow to another room and went over words on the back of the Easy English News.

The rest of the group read paragraphs from the paper out loud in turn and we discussed some of the phrases.

It was one of the liveliest sessions in which I have participated and we did not finish until almost 12:15.
