Laureen's Notes:

For the first 30 minutes of class, we used the pictures envelope and the students took turns describing what they saw in the pics.

At 10:30, we were joined by 2 representatives from the Duquesne University Speech & Language Pathology Dept., Catarina Staltari and Katie Micco. They discussed their department and the different programs that they offer for accent modification and reduction. They may be able to loan us some student volunteers next semester, to help us better develop and refine our program. More to follow.

Then we had coffee and wrapped up.
