

Attendees: Yoko, Satoko, Rainbow, Jing Sun, Guosheng

Volunteers: Lauren*, Charlotte, Ruth

Laureen's Notes:

I distributed the January ESL papers for all of the students, and Rainbow also took one for Sherry.

The students did not want to break into separate groups for this class.

We took turns reading the December ESL article about Christmas, and then had a very interesting discussion about gift-giving holidays in China and Japan.

Then we had coffee, and afterwards, a fun game of Taboo. We used the "beginner" cards in the butter box.
