

Cliff's notes:

We met on a gorgeous morning when everyone probably would have preferred to be outside.

The volunteers were Cliff*, Elizabeth and Charlotte.

The students were Rainbow, Satoko, Jing Sun, Yoko and Xi Lin.

We began by reading aloud the first section of the Heroes and History article entitled "Selma, Alabama and Bloody Sunday." This led to a discussion of segregation and the civil rights movement.

Then, because it was such a beautiful day, we discussed spring and what it was like in their countries, first appearance of flowers, memories of spring, etc.

After the break, we did an exercise where the students described scenes in pictures that had been handed out.
