

VACATION & TRAVEL-RELATED IDIOMS

Take for a ride (deceive or cheat)

On the wagon (not drinking: Source-you can't drink anything on a bouncing wagon)

Miss the boat (fail to take advantage of an opportunity.)

Fifth wheel (extra, not needed)

Catch some rays (get some sun)

Take a dip (swim)

Kick back (relax)

Hit the town (go out and have fun)

Put someone up (let someone stay in your home)

Put together (organize or gather items for a specific purpose)

Head for (go in the direction of) a mile a minute (talking, or doing something, very fast)

Off the beaten path (away from the most-traveled areas)

Travel light (Take few things with you on a trip)

In the same boat (in the same situation; having the same problems)

My way or the highway (do what I say or leave)

Any old port in a storm (something that you would avoid in good times but which looks better when your situation is not so good)

Sail through (to pass quickly and easily through an event)